

Fay Wrobleski

Fay was a stay at home Mom with many occupations: teacher, foster care parent and home-care volunteer. Fay's hobbies included needlework, gardening and church work, especially visiting the elderly.

Fay was a cancer survivor since 1991 when she had a mastectomy. She took tamoxifen and "hot flushed" for five years. She battled recurrence for many years. She believed in a positive attitude.

Fay was a member of Dragon Busters and Waves of Hope from 2000 to 2004.

Fay passed away on April 7, 2017. She was born to the late Philip and Dorothy Reader, April 30, 1943 in The Pas, MB. Fay is survived by her devoted husband Don and their three children: Susan (Jeff) Lofto; Terry (Tanya) Wrobleski; and Joanne (Rob) Hall. She also is survived by eight grandchildren, a large extended family, and many friends. With kindness, generosity, and a good dose of humour, Fay endeared herself to all who met her.
